It was stated in official circles today that the immediate withdrawal of the British minister at Athens will result from the executions.

Russia And Turkey Appear Formidable At Peace Meeting

Other Powers Are Beginning to Wonder What Will Come of Alliance of These Two Nations' Delegations.

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) LAUSANNE, Nov. 28.—Russia and Turkey working together are expected to make a strong pair at Lausanne and other delegates to the Near East conference are wondering what effect the combination will have. British and French circles show a disposition to reject the demands forwarded by the Russian delegation, insisting that Russia be heard not only in the Dardanelles discussion but on all questions. It is pointed out that Russia has scorned a peace treaty with Turkey and that therefore she particularly for her part in the war. The general deliberations on a settlement between Greece and Turkey on one hand and Turkey and the Allies on the other.

Nevertheless, whatever may be the decision of the conference it is apparent there will be no disposition to help Russia. It is recognized that so many problems are part and parcel to a settlement of the straits controversy that Russian participation in this angle will inevitably mean the association of the Moscow delegations with other important questions.

There has been some delay in the securing of radiators for the building, good progress being made, however, in preparing the boilers for operation.

Swanson to Wed Again Says Report

Speculation Rife in Capital Regarding Match With Mrs. Cunningham Hall—Neither Confirmation nor Denial Given.

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Social circles in Washington have been busy for some time with gossip that Senator Claude A. Swanson is soon to marry the sister of his former wife, Mrs. Cunningham Hall. The rumor first got under way in the Spring when Mrs. Hall moved from Richmond to Washington and took rooms at the new Willard Hotel. Since then she and Senator Swanson have been seen together a great deal. Their friends had expected that announcement of the engagement would be made immediately after Senator Swanson's election three weeks ago.

Before their marriage, Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Swanson were known prominently throughout Virginia as the Lyons sisters, and were considered two of the most beautiful debutantes of Richmond. Both were close friends of the famous Langhorn sisters, one of whom is now Lady Astor, member of the British Parliament.

Following her marriage to Cunningham Hall of Richmond, Mrs. Hall made her home in that city. Upon the death of her husband nine years ago she toured Europe and the Far East for several years. Since her return she has been a frequent visitor at the home of her sister in this city.

The death of Mrs. Swanson occurred two years ago last July after a prolonged illness. Since that time, it is declared the friendship between Senator Swanson and the sister of his former wife has caused much comment looking to a possible marriage. Recently, it is said, both Mrs. Hall and the senator have confided in friends that their engagement will be announced shortly. Mrs. Hall is considered as one of the most beautiful maidens in Washington society. She is well liked for her vivacious conversation and charming hospitality.

Mrs. Hall Called To The Courthouse

Grand Jury Apparently Plans to Question Her Despite Mott's Objection—Mrs. Gibson Heard Today.

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) SOMERVILLE, N. J., Nov. 28.—Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall, widow of Rev. E. W. Wheeler Hall, who was slain September 14th with his choir singer, Mrs. E. R. Mills, appeared at the county courthouse today where the grand jury is probing the murder. Friends of Mrs. Hall had circulated a petition asking that she be allowed to appear before the jury. That body has not indicated its attitude although special Deputy Attorney Mott has stated it would not permit her to appear if it were possible to prevent her.

Mrs. Hall accompanied by her attorney and a woman friend, appeared dressed in black. She sat in the foyer with other witnesses. Ferdinand Jacobs, who claimed to have seen Mrs. Hall after the murder had taken place, was the first witness today.

Mrs. Jane Gibson, the state's star witness and Mrs. Hall did not meet when the former arrived at the courthouse. The side action was centered through a side door and taken directly to the prosecutor's private office. Mrs. Hall and her friend sat in the foyer an isolated group. The sector's widow played with her handkerchief as she did when she received a score of reporters in her home some time ago and recounted to them in an interview all she knew of the murder.

Mrs. Gibson was called shortly before 11:30. Before she was put on the stand Eugene Zimmerman, a reporter and Charles Albaugh, a witness, were called. It was understood that Zimmerman was questioned regarding the interview Mrs. Hall gave at her home and which he attended. The nature of Albaugh's testimony was something of a mystery. His name had not previously appeared among the list of the witnesses.

Officials Tried For Treason Are Shot

Seven Caught In Dice Game; Other Court News

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) LONDON, November 28.—The Greek former cabinet members condemned to death in Athens have been executed, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Athens.

ALL BUT 2 TO DIE
(Associated Press Leased Wire.) ATHENS, Nov. 28.—All but two of the former cabinet officers and officials accused of high treason in connection with the Greek debacle in Asia Minor have been sentenced to death.

MAY SEVERE RELATIONS
(Associated Press Leased Wire.) LONDON, Nov. 28.—There is the strongest possibility that Great Britain will break off diplomatic relations with Greece if death penalties imposed on the former cabinet officers are carried out, it is officially said. The precedent of such action by the British would be the break in diplomatic relations with Serbia in 1903 as a result of the murder of the Serbian majesties by revolutionaries. It was pointed out that the sentences given the former ministers have not been carried out and that there is still hope that the Greeks would not take such action.

Early in the trial the British government made representation against the imposition of the death sentence. London dispatches said the British action has been generally resented by Athens and that the recent fall of the Zaimis ministry could be traced directly to the British stand.

Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Read the Result

Cincinnati, Ohio.—"I suffered for a year with nervous troubles and irregularities before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My back pained all the time and I was unfit for housework. I was worn out if I cooked a meal, and was unable to do my washing. My girl friends and my sister told me if I would take your Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills I would be relieved. After taking the first bottle I felt better, and neglected it awhile, but found I could not do my work until I was stronger. So I took the Vegetable Compound again and now I am the mother of a 19 months old boy. He is fat and healthy and I am sure I could never have carried him if it had not been for your Vegetable Compound. I recommend your medicine to all women although I am young to be rising some one older." Mrs. CHRIST, PETROFF, 215 W. Liberty St., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar or corn syrup. Shake, bottle, or cork very tight. GETTING ON THE STAGE IN NEW YORK

By Josephine Van de Griff

This is the fifth of a series of six stories by Josephine Van de Griff describing how she, posing as a country girl, sought to get on the stage in New York.

By JOSEPHINE VAN DE GRIFF

(Special to The Bee).
NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—The next morning I sought out the offices of Mr. Ziesler, of the Folies. The elevator man informed me that Mr. Kingston and Mr. Aarons were the casting directors.

Being known to Mr. Kingston and fearing recognition, I went to Mr. Aarons. Within the office I was greeted by Mr. Aarons' colored man, William, who stuck his head out from a little square aperture.

Is Mr. Aarons in? I queried.
He is, said William, tersely.
I went to see him, I said, "about getting a job."
"There is absolutely nothing doing," said William and withdrew haughtily.

Three men who were sitting about the office laughed. I burned. I wanted to kill them.
William's haughtiness had started another day wrong. I tried a half dozen other offices without success. Eventually I landed in the burlesque district down at 701 Seventh avenue. But neither was there anything doing in burlesque. All burlesque recruiting, it seems, is done in June. The various blond young women were very definite about it. They didn't seem particularly sorry, either.

I went back over some of the beat-abouts, the same old beat-abouts, the same old beat-abouts, the same little groups, patient, clean smiling, kind, but looking a little hungry.

There remained one name on my list, a name I had somehow picked up. It was that of Charles Blaney. Dispiritedly I made the climb to Blaney's office. A man was sitting there.

"Do you think," I said, "that you could get me a job carrying a spear or something?"
The man stirred.
"Why, I shouldn't be surprised. Harry, here's a young lady that would like to carry a spear."

"Harry" came in from somewhere down the hall. He looked me over and bethought himself a moment.
"I tell you," he said, "we've got a stock company up in the Bronx that's putting on 'The Bird of Paradise' next week. I think the cast is all filled but if you'd like to super in that—just for the experience, you know."

Joy mounted to my head and made me dizzy. I said down abruptly. An hour later I delivered into the hands of James Garey, director of the Blaney Players at the Prospect Theatre in the Bronx, a note which stated that in the writer's estimation, Charles Blaney was a earnest and dependable young woman who would make good at any task assigned her. It was signed by Harry Blaney.

James Garey was reading a piece of stage script when I handed him the note. He read it carefully.

"All right," he said, "come back tomorrow at one o'clock and we'll make you a beautiful Hawaiian girl." I ran all the stairs up to the elevated railway. I was happy. I had landed a job. It made no difference whether there was no pay attached, no future promised, nothing at all to cling to. Hadn't Harry Blaney said I was dependable and he believed I would make good?

I went back for rehearsal the next day and the next and learned thereby that my duties in 'The Bird of Paradise' would be these: Together with something like eight other dam-els, also super, I was to toll upon the stage at the rise of the curtain and give a rousing rendition of "On the Beach of Waikiki."

Following this we were to register joy, grief and disapproval as these sentiments were called for by certain principals in the piece. (Joy at the prospect of food, disapproval at the prospect of work, terror at the eruption of a volcano.)

Some time later we were to sing "Aloha" until the curtain comes down, now girls, see if you can't remember something) and at the end were to kneel down in the apron of the stage with arms uplifted while the hapless Luana made her way up the side of the mountain.

At the second rehearsal I got on intimate terms with Katie. TOMORROW: The story Katie told me of stage life and my first—and last—performance.

JOHN POWELL ATTRACTS LARGE CROWD HERE
The auditorium of the Randolph-Macon Institute was filled to its capacity last night when John Powell, Richmond-born pianist, who has already achieved eminence internationally made his first appearance here in several years. He was presented under the auspices of the Music Study Club of Danville which in the past has made possible a number of musical treats for those who derive actual enjoyment out of musical interpretations. It was this organization which brought Mr. Powell twice before and which more recently made possible the appearance of Frieda Hempel.

Six Have Close Call When 36 Strikes Truck

The names of five of the six persons who narrowly escaped death yesterday afternoon when they jumped to safety just as train number 36 crashed into a Ford truck in which they were riding at a crossing one mile this side of Ruffin, N. C.

The machine was demolished, fragments of it strewn along the tracks for more than a hundred yards. The engineer brought the train to a standstill soon as possible and those in charge showed courtesy to the six persons by taking them off the train and putting them along the line between Ruffin and Stokesland. None of the names of those whose lives came so close to being snuffed out, was obtainable last night, but all were said to live between the two above-mentioned points.

The accident occurred at a temporary crossing being used on the de-tour road while a construction company is laying a smooth surface on the main highway. The motor of the truck had stalled when the train made its appearance around a slight curve at that point. Those in the machine saw the grave danger they confronted and all leaped to safety, making no effort to push the machine off the tracks. The truck was literally demolished and the fragments were evidence that had the occupants delayed their departure from the doomed machine, a serious fatality would have resulted.

The accident caused very little delay in the train's schedule for the six persons were taken aboard and courteously permitted to alight at their homes were reached.

POLES REMOVED OFF CRAGHEAD
The Western Union Telegraph has just completed the removal of its poles along Craghead street from Main to the Southern railway passenger station and the installation of these wires—a veritable labyrinth—in conduits or underground containers. As a consequence, Craghead street, a heavy traffic thoroughfare traversed also by the trolley tracks, is now clearer and seems wider than before.

The removal of these wires from the company's up-town office and under the passenger station to its poles along the railway right of way will not only make the street safer, but will facilitate the operations of the fire department in the event of the development of fire along that thoroughfare necessitating the use of ladders and the carrying of lines of hose to the upper floor of buildings.

This work completed at a cost of more than $27,000 has been done by the company before the expiration of the time limit set for such removal and conduit installation, which the city government had determined to require. The removal of the overhead wires constitutes a great improvement in that much traveled street.

Jumping Contest Among Pupils Of The City Schools

The school children of Danville, girls and boys, can jump in a recent contest they, collectively, jumped nearly a mile and a quarter—and that without taking a running start. Such an advantage they'd probably jump five miles and with a little practice out of the county.

For the girls Geneva Hall, of Stone-wall Jackson School took first honors while Benjie Cook of the same school was first among the boys. Evolutionally speaking this does not mean that the children of the Northside are nearer to the flea family, but that they run and jump and climb to more purpose.

The contest was amass athletic idea of instructor Euby and was the first of its kind in the State. Mr. Euby expects to have several other contests of a similar nature during the present school session with a view to inciting greater interest for athletics among the generality of pupils. The next event will be a chinning contest, and Mr. Euby expects the school children of Danville to lift themselves to start.

Mr. Euby has not indicated such an eventuality. It has been suggested that the girls will have all the advantage in a "chinning" contest.

The results of the standing broad jump contest follows:
Open Air Class, won by Rison Park School, average 4 feet and 8 inches.
Third Grade, won by R. E. Lee School, average 4 feet and 8 inches.
Fourth Grade, won by Rison Park School, average 5 feet and 8 inches.
Fifth Grade, won by Stone-wall Jackson School, average 4 feet 11½ inches.
Sixth Grade, won by R. E. Lee School, average 5 feet 1 inch.
Seventh Grade, won by Stone-wall Jackson School, average 5 feet and 10½ inches.

Individual winners at the different schools:
Bellevue—Girls: Joyce Cox and Clara Cox tied at 5 feet and 5 inches. Boys: 1st, Leonard Slayton, 6 feet 11 inches; 2nd, Howard Hall, 6 feet 8 inches.
R. E. Lee—Girls: 1st, Maude Nance and Francis Carter tied at 5 feet 9 inches; 2nd, William Jacobs 7 feet 4 inches; 3rd, Garbrieli Weisner and May Nance tied at 6 feet.

MISSOONS PROGRAM AT LEE STREET BAPTIST

Sunday was a memorable day at Lee St. Baptist church. An interesting missionary program had been arranged for the morning service. Missionary songs were sung by the choir and also songs by the Girls Auxiliary. The Royal Ambassadors, and the Sunbeam, Mr. Royall's thoughts on training the young were very fine.

Mrs. Jan. Craft also gave an interesting talk to the children, after which the Mission Study chairman presented 59 Mission Study diplomas to the Girls Auxiliary, Royal Ambassadors and Sunbeams.

It was quite an interesting thing to see these young children come forward and receive the diplomas. This will make over one hundred engaged in Mission Study in this church in the past month. There are other classes which will soon receive their diplomas. There are five different Missionary organizations in this church.

Mr. Royall had baptismal services at close of the mission program. A large congregation heard the pastor at the night service, and he preached an able sermon.

A diploma was presented at the night service to Master Thomas Wilson, who had done excellent work in the Sunbeam Society.

Mrs. J. T. Hall is in charge of work among the Sunbeams and Mrs. M. W. Royall has charge of the Girls Auxiliary and the Royal Ambassadors. They are doing great work.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Nov. 27.—Operation in the power curtailment program of the Southern Power Company which went into effect today has been promised in a number of letters from mills and other large power users affected. It was stated at the company's office here today. The plan provides for mills to discontinue the use of current for one day each week except such as is necessary for fire protection and similar purposes and the territory served by the company is divided into five zones for this purpose.

The curtailment which extends to mills in both North and South Carolina was made necessary by the autumn drop which affected the hydro-electric plants of the company. It was stated.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c and 30c.

Only too often is that annoying little cough the warning of illness to come. Check its development with Dr. King's. Grateful relief for scratchy, irritated throat and inflamed tissues quickly follows. Feel the congestion disappear and your cold vanish. At all druggists.

STABILIZE MONEY OR FACE FASCISTI MOVE IN U. S., ECONOMIST WARNS

BY IRVING FISHER

(Special to The Bee.) NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 28.—A recent circular sent to bankers and employers expresses deep anxiety over the Fascisti victory in Italy and the gains of the Labor Party in England and elsewhere. It predicts that the same idea of the political domination of labor will soon appear more explicitly in America and will threaten the existing order.

I believe that bankers and employers, not to say the rest of us, have cause for anxiety. But what the circular overlooks is that, as Roosevelt so often warned us, the only real escape from the danger of an over-turn lies in redressing real grievances.

What is needed is to interpret the recent labor unrest as symptoms of social diseases needing to be cured.

There are several such social diseases which I could name, and probably several others which would be revealed by a searching investigation. But here I shall point out only one—probably by far the most important: This is the unstable money growing out of the war.

But what has unstable money to do with recent labor unrest? We do not remember seeing any mention of it in the newspapers. Yet to find it we do not have to seek far. We can trace our way back in three simple steps from the recent political demonstration of labor discontent to unstable money as a prime cause.

The first step brings us to unemployment as the grievance which, more than any other, caused labor to make its recent political pre-election "manifesto," said, among other things:

"Unemployment and low wages, caused largely by the policy of the Labor and Unionist government, have brought distress to the bulk of the working people."

Since the election in which labor came off second best, the unemployed have been demanding a hearing with Bonar Law.

In other words, labor in England held the Lloyd George government responsible for the vast unemployment during the last two years and will hold the Bonar Law government responsible for putting an end to unemployment.

The opportunity to work is likewise the demand of the Fascisti in Italy. In America also the backing of the last election is largely because of the depression of trade and unemployment.

Next we trace back this depression of trade and unemployment, whether in America, England, Italy, or elsewhere, to the fall of prices in 1920 and 1921. Always and inevitably a fall of prices kills enterprise, closes factories, discourages farmers and throws men out of work.

Going still further back, we may trace the fall of prices to the deflation of credit and money beginning the fault of the Church! The bishops of England, good people, no doubt, but slaves to old texts which do not in the least correspond to modern conditions, are in that way the greatest enemies to human progress and happiness.

Unfortunately the bigoted people of the Church are organized. Only one out of ten people in England is connected with the Church. But the other nine are not organized, so their will is overruled by the organized weapons of the Church, always against progress.

Antiquated Laws. "Surely it is obvious that a law that keeps a man or woman tied for life to a dipsomaniac, a life convict, an insane person, or one by whom they have been deserted, is cruel."

"We are the laggards of the world in this matter, just as we were the last to reform our abominable criminal code."

Sir Arthur is a leader in the movement for divorce law reforms and displayed heaps of letters upon his study table from persons who bewailed the fact that they were enmeshed in unhappy marriages, but were unable to secure relief because the English divorce laws, which permit divorce for men only on proof of misconduct by their wives and for women only upon proof of misconduct, cruelty or desertion.

British Divorce Laws Rapped By Conan Doyle

LONDON, Nov. 27.—Unhappy marriages are poisoning the life stream in England, and all because of antiquated divorce laws, according to Sir Arthur Conan Doyle.

"Several hundred thousand people are now wandering about England, helpless victims of our cruel and antiquated divorce laws," Sir Arthur declared. "They cannot live with their legal spouse, yet they are not free to marry. It stands to reason they will form illegal unions."

"Such people are as dangerous to the body politic as microbes in the blood, poisoning the life stream of the nation."

"We have half a million graves in Flanders," said the author, his own voice tingling with quaverings. "We want half a million cradles in England."

"But here are hundreds of thousands of people practically strangled by our divorce laws. They cannot settle down and raise families because the law forbids them to marry."

"And this sin"—Sir Arthur leaned forward and spoke earnestly—"is early in 1920. As Professor Cassel, of Sweden, shows so clearly in his "Money and Foreign Exchange After 1914," just published, and as every other economist knows so well, this restriction of credit which bankers in the main reason for the fall of prices which bankrupted thousands of farmers and business men and made millions of workers idle.

And there you have it! The chain of causes: Deflation, fall of prices, unemployment, producing political vindictiveness.

Whenever deflation of inflation occurs somebody's toes are trod on and discontent and unrest result. First we complain over the high cost of living and then over the depression of trade.

If those now so anxious over labor unrest for fear their own pocketbooks will be injured, once realized that there are those real grievances from inflation and deflation (which are what "unstable money" means) they would do something else than wring their hands in bewilderment.

Lord D'Abernon, now British ambassador to Germany and one of the masters of this subject, once said that he believed 90 per cent. of the world's bolshevism came from unstable money. That is a higher percentage than I would ascribe, but I believe over 50 per cent. would be a conservative estimate.

And the worst of it is that neither labor nor capital has yet clearly seen the situation. Labor is therefore now on the rampage and is quite likely to hang the wrong man to the lamp-post; while capital does nothing except to demand that nothing be done. When both sides demand and obtain stable money over half of their difficulties will disappear.

As stated at the outset, of course, there are other grievances. But it is doubtful if any are so important as those produced by inflation and deflation. Russia Objects In Any Limit On Her Activities

LAUSANNE, Nov. 27.—(By the Associated Press.)—America's insistence for the open door and equality economically in the Near East, which follows her traditional demand for equal commercial privileges in the Far East, was cited today by the Russian delegation as supporting an official communication forwarded by the Russian delegation to the conference asking for the right of speech on all matters before that body.

Russia objects vigorously to any attempt to limit her activities in the decision of the future status of the Dardanelles; she claims that all topics in the Lausanne agenda are closely related to the supreme object of freedom of the Straits, and stable peace in the Near East can be attained only by allowing the Russian delegates free participation on the same basis as the other great powers.

In the official petition the Russians affirm that only by following the principle of equity can the conference hope to reach the goal in the equity of relations between nations—a wish expressed at the opening of the conference and confirmed by the recent declaration of the representatives of the United States.

Discussing the Russian petition tonight M. Rakovsky, president of Ukraine, republic, said to "The Associated Press" correspondent:

"We are glad the United States made its strong stand against the secret treaties agreement; we heartily endorse it. When Ambassador Child spoke of the necessity of building up a foundation of greater equity in the relations between nations, we consider that he was endorsing our stand for equal treatment at Lausanne."

Secretary Hughes' pronouncement of the open door in the Near East as presented and amplified by Ambassador Child, promises to produce the same stir in Europe as did the declaration of Secretary Lloyd George concerning the open door in the Far East. Such is the impression radiating from the diplomats of many countries grouped in Lausanne.

England through Lord Curzon, is understood to have ratified it completely. The French spokesmen have expressed approval of the American stand. Speaking of the disputed Mosul oil area, a Turkish delegate announced that Turkey would claim sovereignty over this rich petroleum district and would distribute concessions on a basis of equality, probably favoring the United States, because the United States had no political designs in Turkey. Thus the American note would seem already to have borne fruit.

The entrance of the Russians upon the conference scene is certain to have important bearings on the future decisions. They have officially informed the conference that all matters with the question of the Straits, and therefore, with Russia. Any decision made without taking into consideration the immense interests of Russia, which orders on the Black Sea were condemned in advance as sterile. If a durable peace was the aim of the conference.

M. Radousky seems distinctly more conservative in his attitude than at Genoa; that was strikingly evident tonight when he expounded Russia's demand for admission to the conference on a footing of equality. He brought a message of peace and good will and tried to give the impression that all Bolshevism Russia was of his view. He even chided an enterprising correspondent from the Balkans who wanted to know what Russia would do if Jugoslavians adopted a menacing attitude. To this Rakovsky replied:

"That is a false note to strike here and gives rise to an undesirable sentiment. Why talk of possible trouble when everybody in Europe wants peace?"

CRITICIZE METHODS OF GATHERING WAGE DATA

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Speakers for Holtermakers, Brakemen and Buffers and Polishers employed in navy yards today sharply criticized methods of gathering data by local wageboards and requested wage increases of 25 per cent. at the opening session of the hearing of the general wage board of review at the navy department. Representatives of naval stations employees from all parts of the country attended the hearing; it was said, because of the continued recommendations, of local boards of wage cuts and reductions in working forces.

FREAK EXPLOSION SPREADS DEATH AND HORROR IN ALABAMA MINE

Eighty-four miners were killed by a freak explosion in the Delomite coal mine, Birmingham, Ala. The dotted line shows the course of the dump cars which broke away, tore down the tippie and, after going down the 300-foot incline, crashed into the yard below. Great clouds of coal dust arose. A high-tension electric cable severed at the crash and ignited the dust. In the terrible explosion, 30 men were killed outright at the foot of the tippie. Deadly after-damp accounted for the remainder of the victims.

Railway Reveals Long Secret Of a Record Run

LONDON, Nov. 28.—A record railway train run in England is described in a document kept secret for nearly 20 years, but now published in the Great Western Railway magazine.

On May 9, 1904, one of the Great Western boat specials from Plymouth to London attained an overall speed exclusive of stops of over 60 miles an hour, and at times during the journey exceeded 102 miles an hour.

The speed was officially recorded, but the company, for some reason not given, decided not to announce the accomplishment.

SYRACUSE IS WINNER

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Syracuse University today won the annual intercollegiate cross country run over the six mile course at Vancortland Park. Yale was second and Massachusetts Institute of Technology third.

Made 100,000 Pills But Can't Get His Money

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Nov. 27.—An effort is being made on the part of creditors here to locate Miss Marie H. Flowers and Miss Nettie Cartlett, owners of the Carolina Medicine company, said to have left the city several weeks ago, without leaving word of their destination.

Personal property of the two women has been attached for bond and lodged alleged to be unpaid. Prior to this action other creditors including J. J. Yates, have attached property of the Carolina Medicine company officials in question.

C. D. Stowe, proprietor of the Owl Drug store, is said to be one of the largest creditors of the medicine company. Mr. Stowe, who patented a medical product placed on the local market, claims that he sold the rights to the Carolina Medicine company for $5,000, receiving thus far only $1,000 for his patent. He also claims that he manufactured and delivered to the company 100,000 pills, but payment has not been received.

Injures Foot While Driving His Locomotive

WILLIAMSBURG, Nov. 27.—W. A. Gore, of Williamsburg, veteran engineer on the Chesapeake and Ohio, met with a peculiar mishap Friday evening, while at the throttle of the big engine which draws the passenger train, reaching here at 5:20 in the afternoon. In some manner one of his feet got caught in the reverse gear of his engine and before he could release himself it caused considerable pain. The accident occurred a few miles west of Williamsburg and he did not free himself from his uncomfortable position until he reached the station here. Mr. Gore, who is a plucky Scotchman, stuck to his engine and made the remainder of the trip. Yesterday morning it was said at his home that he reported for duty as usual, but was suffering considerably from the injury he received.

Grasping Hunter Loses His Bride

LODZ, Poland, Nov. 28.—Dowry bidding for a bride figured in a recent wedding at the border town of Blatystok, according to news brought here by guests returning from the nuptials. At the hour fixed for the ceremony, the bridegroom failed to put in an appearance. The young bride, her attendants and the guests waited away a long period of waiting with dances and conversation. Finally, at 11 p. m., a message arrived from the missing principal, saying he would conclude the marriage only on condition that the dowry were increased 50 per cent.

For a time it looked as if there would be no wedding, and the guests prepared to depart. But the day was saved when one of the young men present rose to the occasion by announcing he would marry the young lady without the "bonus" demanded. His offer was accepted and the wedding took place.

The original bridegroom, having undergone a change of heart, appeared just as the benediction was being pronounced but was, of course, obliged to return home a bachelor.

HORSE WHIPS HUSBAND.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 27.—Charges of peace disturbance against Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Redecker, of Chicago, and Miss Mary Daugherty, of St. Louis, growing out of a horse whipping administered Mr. Redecker and Miss Daugherty, by Mrs. Redecker, were dropped in police court today.

The Redekers effected a reconciliation. Mr. Redecker, 50 years old and Miss Daugherty, 28, have been collecting funds for a religious organization, and Mrs. Redecker used three feet of rawhide on the two when Miss Daugherty entered her husband's room at a local hotel. Miss Daugherty was in tears today. "They have given Mrs. Redecker my job," she sobbed.

CHARGE IS REDUCED TO ONE OF MANSLAUGHTER

DETROIT, Nov. 27.—The charge against Wesley Pett, held in connection with the death of Fred W. Prince, whose body was found last week in the hallway leading to an apartment occupied by Mrs. Pett, was reduced to suspicion of manslaughter. It was agreed also to permit Pett his liberty on $5,000 bail which he said he could furnish.

The autopsy on Prince's body is said to have revealed evidence of a blow on the head. Pett is alleged to have broken into his wife's apartment while a party was in progress there.

A. S. PINKERTON DEAD.

BOSTON, Nov. 27.—Alfred S. Pinkerton, of Worcester, a former president of the Massachusetts Senate and past grand sire of the Odd Fellows of the World, died here today at Forest Hills hospital. He was 67 years old.

TRY THESE STUNTS WITH YOUR BABY

How athletic is your baby? Did you ever try his skill at climbing or swinging from the rings? The parents of Teddy Wright of San Diego, Cal., did and now look what he can do. He's 19 months old and here are some of the stunts he does: swings from the rings, standing and head downward, as shown at left and center; climbs the bar, as shown at right; and walks on his hands. His mother, Mrs. E. A. Wright, is a concert musician of note.

CAROLINA SQUAD LEAVES TODAY

CHAPEL HILL, Nov. 27.—Instead of spending the night before the Virginia game on the road, or sleeping in a Pullman car in the Charlotteville yards, the Carolina team will sleep in a hotel in Lynchburg.

They will board their special car in Durham at ten o'clock tomorrow (Tuesday) night, and after midnight will move off for Virginia by way of Greensboro. Breakfasting in Lynchburg Wednesday, they will spend the day there, going through light practice in the afternoon. The trip to Charlottesville Thursday morning will consume only about two hours.

There have been no new developments of importance, in connection with football, in the last two of three days. Practice has proceeded according to schedule. It has been light. The physical condition of the squad with which Fetzler leaves tomorrow night is thought to be as good as that of any team that has ever set out to meet the Virginia foe.

VILLA WINS FIGHT

BOSTON, Nov. 27.—Pancho Villa, American fly-weight champion, went out of his class again here tonight and defeated Young Montreal of Providence, winning the decision in ten rounds, held Montreal even in another and was only slightly behind in the one round in which the Providence fighter had any advantage.

Villa weighed 113 pounds and Montreal 116.

MICHIGAN WILL SHARE HONORS WITH IOWA TEAM

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 27.—The University of Michigan's undefeated football team will make no claim to sole possession of the western conference championship being willing to share honors with Iowa, another undefeated eleven, it was announced by Coach Fielding H. Yost today. Some Michigan supporters had urged Michigan's claim to first position by means of the point system but it was explained such a course would not be followed.

SETTLERS CONTINUE TO MOVE INTO MINNESOTA

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 27.—Settlers continue to move into Minnesota. Forty-seven families, chiefly from the Middle Western states, arrived to make new homes in the Northern counties within the last month.

members of the co-operative from some 40 counties of North Carolina were heard by Judge C. C. Daniels, of the Superior Court.

Attempting a frontal attack upon the constitutionality of the co-operative marketing law now upon the state books of North Carolina, such distinguished lawyers as T. T. Hicks, of Henderson, F. C. Harding, of Greenville, Murray Allen, of Raleigh, and A. L. Brooks, of Greensboro, either attacked the association as likely to become a monstrous corporation in restraint of the trade or pleaded for a reformation of the contract.

Burgess and Joyner, of Raleigh, Lawrence Levy, of San Francisco, assistant to Aaron Sapiro, and James H. Pou, of Raleigh, represented the association.

All of the suits seek to recover liquidated damages while temporary restraining orders were secured against all grower alleged to have large amounts of tobacco on hand. Eighteen of these orders were secured, two cases have been settled out of court while the other 16 were returnable before Judge Lyon today.

Of these sixteen cases ten were not contested and will be automatically continued until the final hearing. Three cases were argued today and three continued until December 11th.

A. L. Brooks, of Greensboro, defending C. E. and M. T. Winstead, of Roxboro, objected to what he termed a blanket indictment of people for contract-breaking, quoting Edmund Burke to the effect that you cannot indict a whole people, arguing that verbal promises of sixty per cent. cash advances had deceived growers into joining the association, though admitting the contract is silent as to death on the amount of the first cash advance.

Lawrence Levy in reply declared it was extraordinary that the opposi-

Indications when court adjourned today are that the argument will be concluded tomorrow at noon. Judge Lyon reserved all decisions until conclusion of the arguments tomorrow.

A PUZZLE A DAY

"Which is greater, six dozen dozen, or half a dozen dozen?"

Ask somebody the above question, and the answer almost certainly will be incorrect. Can you answer it yourself?

LUMBER

THOMASVILLE, Ga., Nov. 27.—Reports today from Southern Georgia state that virgin timber is disappearing rapidly as a result of active operations of mills erected a year ago to help supply the emergency demand for lumber. The demand for timber is also cutting into the turpentine and naval stores resources of Georgia.

DETROIT, Nov. 27.—Automobile manufacturers are in the market for several million feet of hardwood one inch lumber. Quotations today are from $55 to $56 a thousand feet. This is acting as a damper on buying owing to the price war in the lumber industry the companies are refusing to pay higher prices.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, Nov. 27.—Up to the middle of this month the sales of the Republic Rubber Corporation have been 25 per cent. greater than those in the corresponding period in October. New equipment is being installed in the mechanical and rubber goods departments of the company. Users of the company's old truck tires have placed log orders lately and pneumatic tire production is being steadily.

CANDY

SEATTLE, Nov. 27.—Wholesale dealers in this territory declared today that the entire Pacific Northwest will buy more candy this season than ever before. The general price for mixed plain candy will be 15c a pound and so-called French mixed about 24c.

SUGAR

HOUSTON, Nov. 27.—The Imperial Sugar Refinery has announced another advance to 7.1 cents for refined sugar. The company's mills are now preparing to close down after refining 243,000,000 pounds Cuban raw sugar. This is a net gain of 30,000,000 pounds over last year and establishes a new high record.

DRUGS

BOSTON, Nov. 27.—Sales of the United Drug Company are running ahead of those of last year. Prices are 20 to 30 per cent. lower.

BARONESS HEADS GERMAN WOMEN SEEKING VOTE

BARONESS LEJA DE TOERINOFF
(Special to The Bee.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—A Russian refugee, now a naturalized American woman voter, has been drafted into service in Germany to help progressive German women establish "The Women Voters' Organization."

She is the Baroness Leja de Toerinoff, whose husband, a Russian colonel, was killed fighting the Germans three weeks after the war began.

Later her castle near Riga was confiscated by the Communists, her jewels were stolen and she was forced to flee to New York almost penniless.

Baroness de Toerinoff quickly adapted herself. She soon found a means of livelihood as a singer. Later she became a citizen.

In July she sailed for Europe to be gone six months.

"All my property has gone," she has written back to New York. "Even the jewels that I left in care of friends in Germany have long since been sold to buy food."

But there's a lighter side to her letters. German women, she writes, asked her to tell them about the experiences of American women in politics. Her discussions led to an invitation to become actively engaged in organizing women voters in various German cities, an invitation she has accepted.

The baroness was one of the guests at the wedding of Princess Hermine of Reuss to ex-Kaiser Wilhelm.

Huge Leak Found In U.S. Payments

Transportation Systems Have Had Free Use of Millions, Comptroller Says.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Comptroller General McCardell has discovered that the railway and water transportation systems of the country have been making the government for years out of large sums of money through overpayments by incompetent departmental disbursing officers.

The leak, the Comptroller General announced today, is to be stopped by taking the disbursing authority from the different departments and centering it in the general accounting office of the government.

Under the present haphazard method of paying government transportation charges, the overpayments run into millions. These overcharges are usually corrected, but in the meantime the railways have used the government's money without interest and the treasury has been deprived of its use.

During the past few months something like $1,000,000 has been received from transportation systems for overpayments, the Comptroller said.

It relieves the departmental heads from responsibility by saying: "There is little wonder that overpayments are frequent under the system in vogue. The determining of a correct transportation charge, involving as it often does, the intricate questions of rates and conditions, is a most arduous task, demanding both experience and knowledge and ever changing library of classifications, tariffs, division sheets and other data."

MARY MACSWINEY WAS RELEASED

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—(By The Associated Press.)—Mary MacSwiney, who has been in custody since her arrest at Mountjoy Prison, was released today.

Her release came on the 12th day of her hunger strike. She had refused to take food since her arrest on September 11, when she was seized while on a tour of the United States.

MacSwiney was released after a hunger strike of 12 days.

Her release was a result of the intervention of the American people, who have been protesting against her imprisonment.

MacSwiney was a member of the Irish Republican Army and was known for her role in the Irish independence movement.

MOTHER AND SON AWAY STONSOR

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—An order was received today at Ellis Island from Assistant Secretary of Labor White stating that Miss Nancy Jordan, a young English woman, and her son, Francis, would be allowed to enter this country providing Mrs. Frank G. Warren of Kansas City, Mo., put up $300 bond in each case.

Officials at the immigration station said they had not heard from Mrs. Warren, said by Miss Jordan to have financed her trip to America. According to the Washington order the bonds would have to be put up within thirty days.

Miss Jordan, and her three-year-old son have been held at Ellis Island, pending an appeal to Washington from the order refusing her admittance on the grounds that she is an unmarried mother, today awaited the appearance of the good Samaritan who had paid for her trip and who was to have met her.

She said that Mrs. Frank G. Warren, divorced wife of Frank G. Warren of Kansas City, Mo., was to have met her. She added she had learned that the Warrens had been divorced a few hours before she sailed.

"It was through Mrs. Warren's kindness that my boy and I have the money to come," she said, adding, "I have never seen her. I know nothing of the divorce but I wish it well understood that my situation had nothing to do with it."

Miss Jordan said that she was befriended in England by Mrs. Warren whose friendship was described as "sincerely and almost maternal."

When a gold wedding ring on Miss Jordan's left hand was noticed she said:

"I wear it to protect my little boy. I think of him first and last. As for myself it is inconsequential. One must put up with everything and I have no choice. In England, if I sent him to school he would be derided. In this country if he is introduced by people it would be different. I want him to have a chance."

TURKEY IS PLEASED OVER U. S. ATTITUDE

LAUSANNE, Nov. 26.—(By The Associated Press.)—The position of the United States on Turkish capitulations will probably be found to be not essentially different from the French position, particularly the French, when the time comes to discuss that delicate topic. To avoid wounding Turkish national pride, a movement is under way to abolish the distasteful word "capitulations" altogether as applied to Turkey, which dislikes anything that savors of a public admission indicating surrender of national administrative rights.

All the great powers will undoubtedly follow America's lead in insisting that the former accused of crime shall still come to trial before foreign courts in Turkey and that foreign, or at least mixed tribunals, shall have jurisdiction in property disputes involving foreigners.

France to propose guarantees.

It is likely that France will propose the establishment of judicial guarantees as a substitute for capitulations touching on judicial privileges enjoyed by foreign residents in France. A large French population in her North African colonies, who were loyal to France in the great war, and she has logical reasons for insisting upon equitable treatment for the Mohammedan population at this moment when Turkey's political status in the world is being definitely fixed at Lausanne.

Like the United States, however, France probably will not submit to having her citizens tried by Turkish courts, which are essentially founded on Moslem laws.

When it comes to the taxation of foreign property and the matter of customs tariff, France probably also will be found ranged besides the American position. France will undoubtedly propose some plan whereby foreign property in Turkey will be obliged to contribute some revenue to the Turkish state and an impartial international examination of the Turkish customs tariff problem, like that according to which the outgrowth of the Washington conference.

A Review of Last Week.

A review of the first week of the Lausanne conference shows Turkey met signal defeat in her first demand, namely, for a plebiscite in western Thrace, which she maintains is overwhelmingly Turkish population. The Turks, however, have placed on the diplomatic board a proposal which is affording great embarrassment to all the powers. They want a neutral belt marked out along the entire European frontier from the Black Sea to the Aegean, and they want the powers to guarantee that it shall be kept neutral.

This question is a more complicated one than it appears. It is not a matter of neutral territory, where so many wars have been fought, and where the "national aspirations" are still a powerful factor for discord.

Similarly Turkey asks that the Aegean islands, which lie near her Anatolian coast, be demilitarized and an autonomous form of government established. This is an extension to the sea of the neutral belt proposal suggested for the Balkans.

When it comes to a settlement of the straits controversy Turkey will undoubtedly demand additional strong guarantees against aggression by Christian Europe. Isma Pasha appears to be looming up as an astute statesman.
